

A giraffe with a brown and white reticulated pattern stands in a field of tall, golden-brown grass. In the background, a city skyline is visible under a clear blue sky. The giraffe is facing left, and its long neck is extended.

KENYA:

7,522 miles from

Downtown Baltimore.

The Maryland
Zoo: 3 miles.

The Maryland Zoo in Baltimore is in your backyard! The Maryland Zoo's brand new Giraffe Feeding Plaza lets you get up close and personal with the 4 reticulated giraffes who live here.

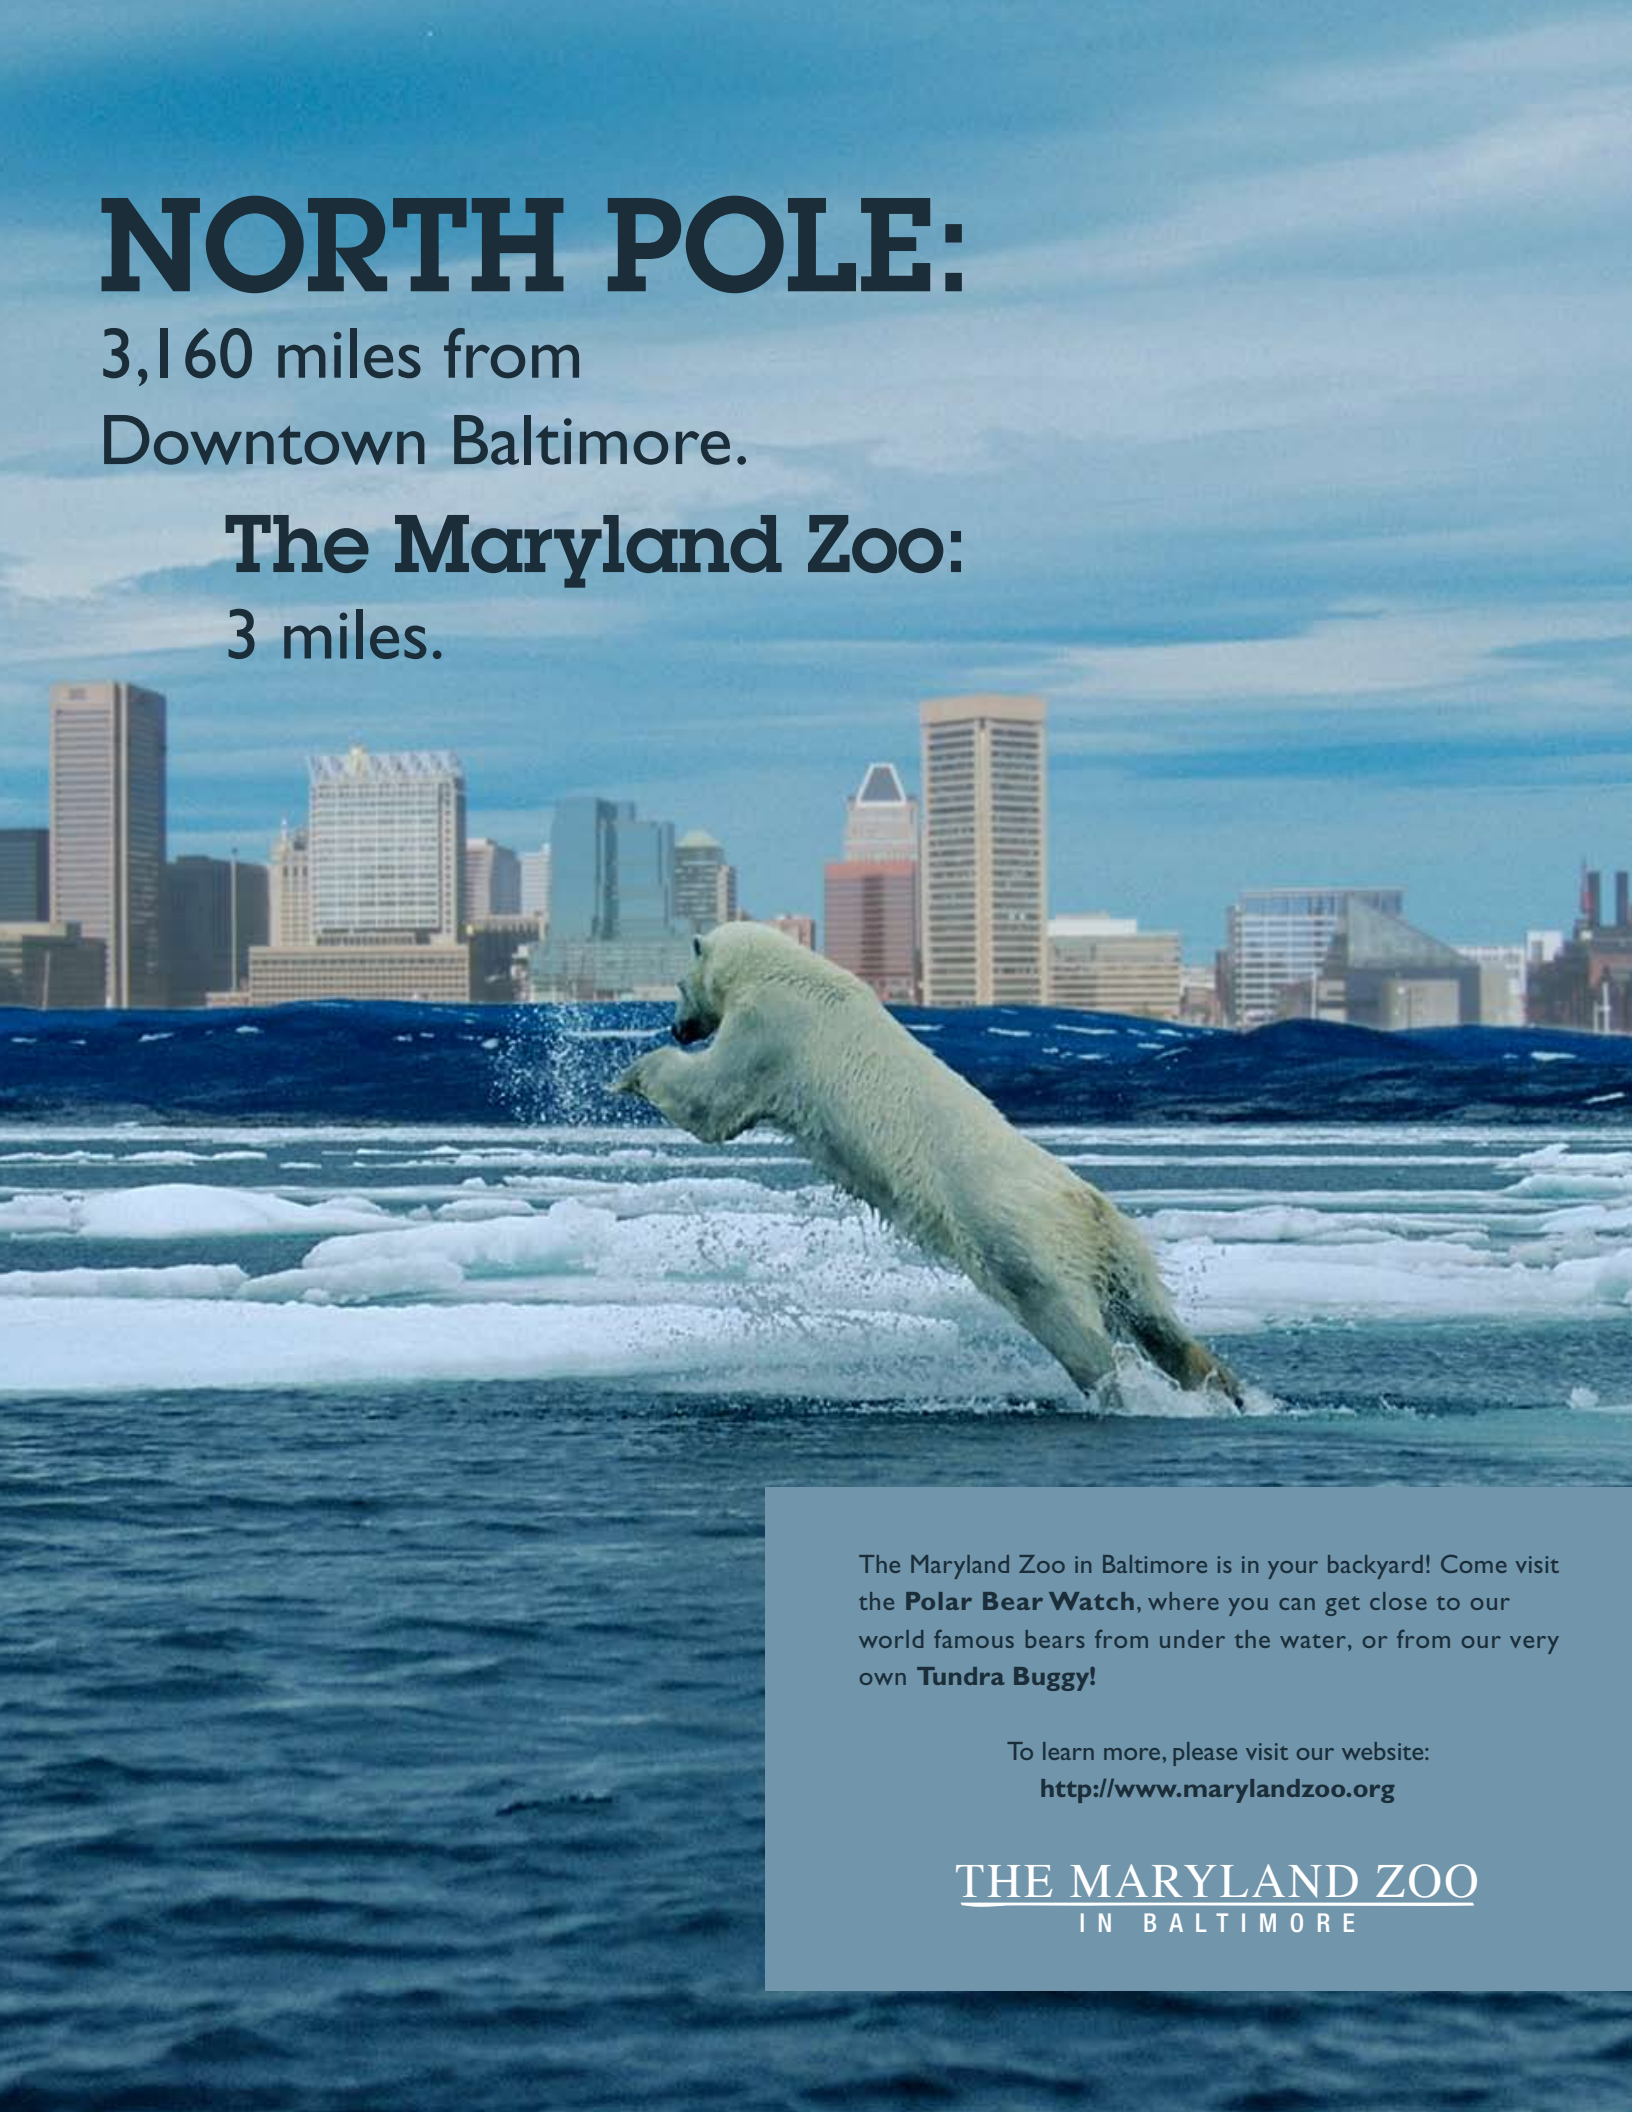

To learn more, please visit our website:
<http://www.marylandzoo.org>

THE MARYLAND ZOO
IN BALTIMORE

NORTH POLE:

3,160 miles from
Downtown Baltimore.

The Maryland Zoo:
3 miles.

A polar bear is captured in mid-leap, emerging from the water and splashing. The bear is white with some yellowish-brown staining on its back. The water is dark blue with white foam from the splash. In the background, a city skyline with various skyscrapers is visible under a blue sky with light clouds.

The Maryland Zoo in Baltimore is in your backyard! Come visit the Polar Bear Watch, where you can get close to our world famous bears from under the water, or from our very own Tundra Buggy!

To learn more, please visit our website:
<http://www.marylandzoo.org>

THE MARYLAND ZOO
IN BALTIMORE

TANZANIA:

7,946 miles from
Downtown Baltimore.

The Maryland Zoo:
3 miles.

The Maryland Zoo in Baltimore is in your backyard! Come meet Samson, the first elephant born at the Maryland Zoo, one of five African elephants.

To learn more, please visit our website:
<http://www.marylandzoo.org>

THE MARYLAND ZOO
IN BALTIMORE